RG104 E-1 Box 123 Jan-June 1881

OFFICE OF
Special Agent Treasury Department,

New York, March 22d, 1881.

Col A. Loudon Snowden.

Superintendent of the Mint.

Philadelphia. Pa.

Dear Sir.

I have the honor to Enclose herewith sample of an article imported at this port — marked "# 200. EF 95 x 5" — which I will thank you to have analyzed, for the purpose of determining its exact properties, and would be pleased to be favored with your own views, and those of Professors Booth, Du Bois and Eckfeldt as to its proper classification according to its ordinary use in the arts, as well as your opinion as to its classification for dutiable purposes under our tariff, which provides. Viz.

"Nickel 30d per pound"

"Nickel oxide and alloy of Nickel with Copper 20d per pound"

This information is desired for my use in an investigation with which I am charged by the Secretary of the Treasury.

RG104 E-1 Box 123 Jan-June 1881

I will thank you to address me at 134 South 2d Street Philadelphia, Pa.

Very Respectfully
Your Obt Servt
Geo L. Fichenor
Spl Agt Treas Dept

RG104 E-1 Box 123 Jan-June 1881

202½

Office of Special Agent Treasury Department,

NEW YORK,

March 22, 1881.

Geo. C. Tichenor
Special Agent.

Sends sample of an article for assay, to determine its dutiable value, and classification according to its ordinary use in the arts.

Assay Report filed herein.

No. of Enclosures,

Special Agents will fill out the endorsement and brief on the back of each letter.

Rec'd March 23d 1881.

941 30 Mi

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 123

[Abstract:] Sends sample of an article for assay to determine its dutiable value… 302 ½

Office of Special Agent Treasury Department,
New York,
March 22, 1881

Col. A. Loudon Snowden
Superintendent of the Mint
Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Sir.

I have the honor to enclose herewith sample of an article imported at this port – marked "#200 – [E.F.] 95 + 5" – which I will thank you to have analyzed, for the purpose of determining its exact properties, and would be please to be favored with your own views, and those of Professors Booth, DuBois and Eckfeldt, as to its proper clarification according to its ordinary use in the arts, as well as you opinion as to its classification for dutiable purposes under our tariff, which provides, viz:

"Nickel 30¢ per pound."

"Nickel oxide and alloy of Nickel with Copper 20¢ per pound."

This information is desired for my use in an investigation with which I am charged by the Secretary of the Treasury.

I will thank you to address me at 134 South 2d street Philadelphia, Pa.

Very Respectfully,
Your Obt. Sevt.
Geo. C. Tichenor
Spl. Agt. Treasy. Dept.